Town of Enfield Report of Fire Equipment

W. E. LAFFEE

Fire Warden.

Report of the Forest Fire Warden

There is no field of endeavor where cooperation and compliance with law and regulation are more needed than that of forest fire control. The most effective and economical effort in this field of activity is that of prevention. The old adage "an ounce of prevention" being "worth a pound of cure" was never more aptly applied then to forest fire control.

As men are drawn into service the burden of carrying on rests more heavily upon those who remain at home. Here, team work becomes increasingly important because of constantly diminishing manpower. A general breakdown in essential local activities and law observance can only be prevented by whole hearted cooperation between citizens and leaders.

The forest fire warden is, by law, the designated local leader in forest fire matters. He exercises his prerogatives and discharges his duties as such under the direction of the District Chief and State Forester. There was never a time when the warden needed each citizen's good will and cooperation more than he does now. With manpower waning, fire prevention, through efficient preparation, care with fire and compliance with all laws and regulations become a vital duty of citizenship.

I want to express my appreciation of the Town Officials, Firemen, Deputy Wardens, and to the Citizens of Enfield and the Lebanon District Office and urge the continuation of this aid in keeping fire damage at the lowest possible amount for the coming year.

Respectfully Submitted,

HENRY A. LARAMIE

Forest Fire Warden.

Forest Fire Tools on Hand

22 Knapsack Pumps	1 Hoe
30 Shovels	10 Pulaski Tools
10 Mattocks (Hazel Hoes)	10 Axes
2 Crosscut Saws	2 Crosscut Saw Wedges
4 Canteens	36 Water Pails
13 Lanterns	12 Council tools (fire rakes)
1 Flame Thrower	6 Head Lights

It is recommended that the small amount of $30 00 be made available for the purchase and keeping in repair small forest fire hand tools. These small tools can be obtained thru the State Department at one half the cost to the state.

During this critical period it is more than ever the part of good and prudent citizenship to remember

1. That permission to burn in or near woodland or where fire may be communicated to woodland must be secured from the forest fire warden when the ground is not covered with snow.

2. To be careful when smoking in or near the woods and not throw or drop lighted cigars, cigarettes or matches.
3. To notify your local warden promptly of any fire you see.
4. That fire prevention is the best and cheapest fire insurance.
5. To be fire-minded, be careful; be cooperative and thus help your warden prevent forest fires. This is patriotism at work.

The 1942 fire record for our town follows:—

Number of fires or investigations	5
Area burned, None
Number of permits issued	118

Annual Report of the Superintendent of Schools.

To the School Board and Citizens of Enfield:

Your Superintendent of schools herewith presents his annual report. It is the 9th in the present series and one of a long list of previous reports. It is made a part of the report of the school board to the School District.

INTRODUCTORY. World events are having such a far-reaching impact upon public schools that it becomes difficult to organize and maintain the school program. The very fact that war necessity calls upon 18-year-old boys to enter the armed services and the fact that industry also requires the labor of the older boys and girls in school has made it advisable to reorganize and redesign some of the work of the schools. This has not yet reached a stage to be entirely disrupting. It requires only a modification of the customary work and a new emphasis upon some of the subjects basic to industry as well as basic to the needs of the armed forces.

PERSONNEL. There was but a minimum turn-over in the teaching staff at the end of the last school year. This condition was due to the fact that most of the teachers had not had long experience and to the added fact that the citizens made it possible for the school board to increase salaries. The higher cost of living plus the increase of wages in industry is bound to have its effect upon a teaching personnel. Even though teachers may wish to render every patriotic service possible and are willing to forego some of the privileges of industrial workers, they cannot be expected to carry on indefinitely without substantial recognition in the way of salary increase, to meet, in part, the increased cost of living. It is recommended that for the duration at least, the maximum salaries paid to teachers be increased to avoid an increasing turnover in the teaching staff.

PLAYGROUND. Just before the School District meeting a year ago, information reached your superintendent that it might be possible to purchase the property at the rear of the Village School for use by the pupils in that school. An Article was placed in the Warrant, but due to the fact that there was some opposition and that the Article itself was somewhat indefinite, action was not taken until later in the year. As soon as all of the legal requirements were met, a special School District meeting was called with an Article asking for the appropriation of a definite sum of money for the purchase of this land. It was voted that the Johnson property be purchased at a cost not to exceed $600.00 and that the School Board be authorized to borrow on notes such sum as might be needed up to this amount beyond the use of the current appropriation. By special arrangement with the agent controlling the property, it was finally purchased for $550. This was somewhat less than the appropriation and somewhat more than was at first thought advisable to pay for this particular piece of land. The added protection to the school children in having available near their school a place to play will result in eliminating to a great extent the hazard of their playing near the street. Two steps will be necessary to complete this project. One is providing a fence along the boundaries of the field so that the activities of the pupils will not interfere with other property. Two, the regrading and under draining of the property in such a way as to provide a more level playground and make the whole area more usable for the purposes for which it was purchased. It is recommended that as soon as possible an appropriation be made for these two purposes, or that the board be permitted to utilize such unexpended balance as may be found available in the school budget, or to utilize the money authorized to be borrowed by the vote at the special district meeting.

PUPIL ENROLLMENT AND DISTRIBUTION

School	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	Total
Village	23	30	28	24	24	30	28	23	210
High School		9	10	11	12
		19	14	16	13				62
Center School		1	2	3	4	5
		6	5	4	4	1			20
Grand Total									<hr/> 292

It appears from the above table that there is a slight falling off in the number of pupils attending school. This is no doubt due to the fact that some workers are called to other communities and consequently find it more economical to move their families rather than to remain in Enfield. It is also due partially to a lesser number of pupils attending the schools from other school districts. There is, however, a sufficiently large number of pupils in the lower grades to indicate that the enrollment in the schools will continue at about this level for sometime to come. It is still true that with the fluctuating number at the Center School, it would be more economical to transport those pupils to the Village School than it is to maintain that school. This is pointed out at this time so that it may not be lost sight of in future considerations of economies as soon as the war situation is clarified.

HIGH SCHOOL. The work in the high school has been somewhat intensified in the science subjects and in the field of mathematics. These, together with a greater emphasis on music, are the more marked changes in the school program. There is an increasing need for additional classroom space at that building and for additional areas in cases of emergency. At the present time, a pupil who is ill must be taken to the basement in an unheated room or crowded into the office on the second floor or left in the classroom. Another handicap to the school is the fact that there are no adequate auditorium or indoor play areas in the building itself. It almost seems that the time should not be too remote before the citizens of Enfield actually provide additional space at that building. The very fact that the additional land area has been provided makes it possible for such an improvement without the necessity of purchase of additional property. It is recommended that consideration be given to this need by both the school board and the citizens and that as soon as possible positive action be taken to provide the necessary facilities.

BOY SCOUTS. The past four years have been productive of a renewed interest in the boy scout movement. This interest has been so great that it has seemed to your school officials that it would be better to capitalize the energy of the youngsters in a wholesome way than to leave them to organize in less desirable ways. This has meant that the school itself, under the guidance of the superintendent, has sponsored a boy scout troop for about five years, first under the direction of Mr. Jordan, later Mr. Ripley, and now of Mr. Ramsay, the Headmaster. The troop is now well organized. Mr. Ramsay has as his assistants Mr. Pimer and Mr. Kelly. The scouts should be credited with having done a splendid piece of work in aiding the war effort by collecting tons of scrap metal and making it available for shipment to the production areas. They also assisted in a paper salvage campaign and are prepared to carry on in any necessary and desirable way to assist in all movements which have for their aim the winning of the victory.

SCHOOL LUNCHESES. The program for school lunch has been continued with surplus commodities furnished by the AMA. During the early part of the year, the WPA found it possible to provide assistance at its expense to prepare these lunches. Later this assistance was withdrawn and it has been found possible through various channels to continue the program at a moderate cost to the School District. Recent newspaper publicity indicated that the AMA might find a way to provide for the purchase of further supplies, but until official action is taken the only resources for additional supplies will be through the contributions made by the pupils for the lunches which are served to them. Over and over again, it is demonstrated that such lunches providing a hot meal or one hot dish for those coming from a distance promotes the general health. This is evidenced by the fact that there seem to be a lesser number of absences on the part of these pupils and a more normal development of the children who have had the benefit of these lunches. It is hoped that some plan may be worked out for this desirable practice to be continued in subsequent years.

TEACHER ACTIVITIES. The various governmental agencies are continuously calling upon the schools for more and more help with the war effort. This is to be expected in these times of emergency. It is gratifying to know that federal agencies and other agencies increasingly recognize that the schools are well organized and that their energies can be turned toward worthy causes. It should be recorded at this time that in keeping with the traditions of the schools your teachers have cooperated to the limit of their capacity in such activities as have been assigned them. It should not be forgotten that many hours of out of school time were given by the teachers in making the rationing program available to the citizens of Enfield. The teachers are ready to carry on in the next phases of the rationing program. It must be remembered, however, that the regulations are definitely laid down by governmental personnel and are not the responsibility of the local school officials. The cooperation which citizens have given and will give the teachers will make this whole program a greater success in the equitable distribution of necessary products than was true in the last war. So far as can be done, every individual will be served and served alike, regardless of wealth or position.

You will be interested to know that it has been possible to carry on the schools during the current year with an expectation of a reasonable balance. No money has been borrowed outside of the budget to meet the cost of the new play field. The proposed budget as set up for the year 1943-44 has included a little larger amount in the item for teachers' salaries to try to meet, in part at least, the competition which is bound to arise both from school districts able and willing to pay higher salaries and from the industrial fields during this war emergency. The other items in the budget remain practically the same as those of previous years although it is not known whether there will be tuition requirements for pupils in Lebanon and Plainfield. The income from State Aid is somewhat larger than that of last year so that the total requests amount to only about $1000.00 in the budget. It is recommended that the sum of $20,500.00 be raised in addition to the expected income.

COMMENTS. The citizens of Enfield may well be pleased to have made possible so great an opportunity for the boys and girls in the schools. The war emergency will make far more serious difficulties in some fields, such as transportation, but it is felt that these can be met without too great sacrifice. Acknowledgments are made to the school board, citizens and teachers for all of the efforts which have been put into the work of providing a fundamental education for the young people of the community. It is the recommendation of your superintendent that this same spirit of cooperation continue. It is his further recommendation that steps may be taken in the near future to provide additional facilities at the school and to improve the playground which has been recently purchased.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT J. FULLER,
Superintendent of Schools.
